PARSHA OUTLINE BY CANTOR VOGEL

SHEMINI

1. On the eighth day, after seven days of inauguration, Aaron and his sons begin to officiate as Kohanim (Priests).
2. A fire issues forth from G-d to consume the offerings on the altar, and the divine presence dwells in the Sanctuary.
3. Aaron's two elder sons, Nadav and Avihu, offer a "strange fire before G-d, which He commanded them not" and die.
4. Laws of Kashrut, which animals are permissible and forbidden for consumption. Animals must have split hooves and also chew their cud; fish must have fins and scales; a list of non-kosher birds is given, and a list of kosher insects.
5. The laws of spiritual purity, including the purifying power of the mikvah and the wellspring. The people of Israel are instructed to "differentiate between the impure and the pure."

HAFTORAH

This week's haftorah mentions how Uzzah was struck dead when he touched the Ark of the Covenant, similar to the deaths of Nadav and Avihu, described in this week's Torah reading. The Ark had been stored in the house of Avinadav for many years, ever since the destruction of the Tabernacle in Shiloh. The recently crowned King David decided to move the Ark to the new capital, Jerusalem. The Ark was placed on a cart and it was transported amidst singing and dancing. When the procession reached Goren Nachon, the oxen mis-stepped and Uzzah, Avinadav's son, took hold of the Ark to steady it, whereupon he was instantly killed. David was devastated, and he temporarily placed the Ark in the home of Oved-edom, the Edomite, where it remained for three months. The Ark was then brought up to the city of David with great singing and dancing. David then blessed and distributed presents to all the assembled.

AIPAC Israel Update

Iran Threatens Israel Over Airstrike in Syria

A senior Iranian foreign policy official warned Israel on Tuesday that its strike on an air base in Syria that killed several Iranians would "not remain without a response," the Lebanese news channel Al Mayadeen reported, according to a New York Times report. Seven Iranian military personnel were killed on Monday in the strike on the Tiyas, or T4, air base near Homs, according to the Iranian news agency Tasnim. The semiofficial Fars news agency initially said that three were members of the Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps, but the report was later withdrawn without explanation. Syria, Iran and Russia have accused Israel of mounting the attack, though Israel has neither confirmed nor denied involvement. Israel has carried out several strikes in Syria in the past, some aimed at stopping what it says is a military buildup by Iran and its regional ally, Hezbollah, along the Syrian-Israeli border.
